DEDICATION

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

Sister M. Millicent, C.S.A.

While November of 1963 enshrouded the whole nation in sorrow, we at Immaculate Conception felt ourselves doubly afflicted. Just ten days previous to the assassination of our president, death stopped briefly at the parish convent and in a matter of minutes we were bereaved of a devoted teacher and loyal friend, Sister M. Millicent.

Although these two people were worlds apart in occupations, they shared a quality that endeared them to us. They cared about youth. Sister Millicent gave us beauty; President Kennedy, an example of Christian leadership, both of utmost importance to today's youth.

We value their influence, we cherish their ideals, we reverence their memory. Of that reverence may this dedication of the yearbook by the class of 1964 be a small expression.

*His Holiness
Pope Paul VI*

*His Excellency
Bishop Martin
D. McNamara*

As we add our names to the roll of Immaculate Conception alumni we add also our thanks for the training and inspirational opportunities afforded us by the constant zeal of Monsignor Plunkett, pastor of Immaculate Conception Parish.

For her daily efforts in our behalf, for her personal interest in our welfare, for her prayers and quiet sacrifices offered for our good we are grateful. May God bless our sincerely dedicated principal, Sister Marcile.

HOMEcoming

The homecoming celebration was a truly gala affair. The bonfire rally had proved the mettle of IC spirit, the weather was perfect, the evening's dance was splendid. All that kept the event from seeming like a fairy tale was the fact that the victory went to the opposing team.

FRESHMAN

CLASS

OFFICERS

The election of these freshmen as class officers and their consequent service on the student council indicate that the freshmen know ability when they see it. Wearing confident smiles above are Secretary Stephen Totzke, Treasurer Barbara Dolan, President Jim Morgan and Vice President Donna Parsons.

In the four years just past IC has meant many things to us: hours of study, happy social gatherings, friendships that we hope will endure, ideals of Christian living, opportunities for spiritual as well as intellectual and physical development. In brief, and in Monsignor Plunkett's well-known phrase, we have had the benefit of an educational program calculated to train "the whole man." Of all this we are mindful; for it we are grateful. The strongest influence, however, at IC is that of our Immaculate Mother for whose loving care we are deeply grateful and whose colors we proudly wear. All else we are leaving now; she remains as guide and guardian in the years ahead. May we always remember we are, and deserve to be called, children of Mary.

The yearbook staff wishes to express sincere thanks to the men and women of these firms who have been of invaluable assistance to us:

Jim,
You're in all of my classes
this year, and I hope that next year
you won't be in any.
But, if you are, I guess
I'll have to enjoy it.
Greg
